MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR.,
ALSO KNOWN AS
MATT KOEHL,
RAY COCHRAN

On July 3, 1972, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Matthias Koehl, Jr., Commander of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP), on July 2, 1972, addressed a group of approximately twenty-five NSWPP activists at NSWPP Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, after returning from a white power rally held by the NSWPP earlier in the day on the grounds of the Washington Monument, Washington, D. C.

The National Socialist White People's Party, also known as The American Nazi Party, American Nazis, The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists, The George Lincoln Rockwell Party, was organized on February 26, 1956, at Arlington, Virginia, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement as espoused by the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. The organization supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and Foreign countries.

The source stated that Koehl requested volunteers from the group he was addressing who were "single, unemployed and had no family to support" to leave on the NSWPP owned "school bus" en route to Miami, Florida, within the next several days for the purpose of demonstrating at the Democratic and Republican conventions.

The above-mentioned bus is a converted yellow school bus utilized in the past by the NSWPP to transport NSWPP activists throughout the South and other areas of the country publicizing NSWPP opposition to forced bussing of public school children as a means of achieving racial balance in schools. This bus in the past has borne signs inscribed with "White Power," "Gas Race-Mixers," and other slogans of an anti-semitic and anti-Negro meaning. The bus currently bears 1972 Virginia license plates AUS-434 and has been determined previously to be registered to an NSWPP staff officer from Arlington, Virginia.

The above-mentioned source further advised that NSWPP activists present at the rally held earlier in the day were contingents of "Stormtroopers" from the following localities:

Ohio, led by Regional NSWPP leader Casey Kalemba;
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, a newly formed NSWPP unit led by Richard Biederman;
Baltimore, Maryland, led by NSWPP leader Wolfgang Schrodt, and other individuals from the Washington, D. C. and Northern Virginia areas.

According to the source, approximately twelve individuals responded that they would go on the Miami trip but at this time no specific individuals responding to Koehl's request have been chosen to accompany him on the journey. The bus reportedly has in the past been altered by removing a certain number of the rear seats and outfitted with matresses or sleeping bags and has at times transported up to seven NSWPP activists on extended trips. Koehl indicated that the group departing in the bus will be only a vanguard of NSWPP activists in hopes others will provide their own transportation to the Miami, Florida, area. Koehl advised the group that certain details concerning the exact date of departure and itinerary along the way as well as definitive plans once the Miami area had been reached would remain secret at the present time.

He announced, however, that they would be leaving around the middle of the coming week, meaning July 5 or 6, 1972, and would publicly announce prior to departure NSWPP plans concerning scheduled NSWPP activities at the Democratic and Republican conventions. According to the source, Koehl was reported to make statements such as, "We are going to show the Democrats, Republicans, and Floridians what Nazis are made of" and "By going down there we are going to show how rotten the system is and that the left is no viable alternative"and the fact that both political parties chose a "Jew infested area like Miami Beach goes to show how corrupt a political system we have.". ."We might even show them some crowd control techniques."

Koehl joined the NSWPP when it was then known as the American Nazi Party in 1960. He succeeded George Lincoln Rockwell, the NSWPP founder, on August 25, 1967, after the assassination of Rockwell at Arlington, Virginia.

Previous investigation has ascertained that Koehl has been known to possess firearms and should be considered armed and dangerous.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)

On July 3, 1972, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that approximately 35 uniformed members of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) held a "White Power" rally on the grounds of the Washington Monument in the vicinity of 15th Street and Constitution Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. According to the above source, the demonstration started at approximately 2 p.m. and opened with the playing of recorded music over a public address system operated by the NSWPP. NSWPP participants were dressed in the standard uniform of the NSWPP stormtrooper, consisting of brown khaki uniforms, swastika armbands, black ties, white crash helmets and black boots. After the opening introduction of recorded march music, NSWPP National Staff Officer Daniel Dexter opened the program with a speech on the superiority of the white race. Dexter's speech, in the main theme, concentrated on the accomplishments of the white man throughout the world and contained many derogatory remarks concerning the Negro race.

The National Socialist White People's Party, also known as The American Nazi Party, American Nazis, The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists, The George Lincoln Rockwell Party, was organized on February 26, 1956, at Arlington, Virginia, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement as espoused by the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. At the conclusion of this speech, Dexter introduced an individual he identified as Richard Biederman as "one of our people from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania." Biederman then made a speech which pertained to the predicament of urban whites who are currently "trapped" and who have two alternatives; either to "remain trapped or to fight the blacks." His speech generally consisted of the theme that crime was mainly controlled by the Negroes and that the whites were being victimized by the Negro.

After Biederman's speech, Dexter introduced the next speaker as Robert Homan, " a man just back from Vietnam." Homan made a primarily anti-Semitic speech that contained the usual NSWPP harangue alleging Jewish control of the media, finances, government and organized crime.

The last speaker was NSWPP Commander Matthias Koehl who spoke on the theme of a Nazi America. Shortly after the beginning of Koehl's speech, intense heckling by spectators, who consisted mainly of hippies, began and at one point a group of the demonstrators charged into a group of NSWPP stormtroopers who had surrounded the speaker's platform.

The source advised that at this time numerous things were being thrown at the NSWPP participants, including bottles, pennies, stones and anything the spectators could get their hands on. The hecklers grew more determined to break up the demonstration and several fist fights between the stormtroopers and hecklers broke out. At one point an NSWPP stormtrooper was seen to spray one of the hecklers with a container of what appeared to be chemical mace and shortly thereafter the stormtrooper was arrested by the U. S. Park Police. As Koehl attempted to continue with his speech, additional fist fights broke out and the situation appeared to be more tense and at approximately 3:15 p.m. the rally was declared ended by the Park Police.

After the anouncement that the rally was ended by the Park Police no one appeared to move, however, and a large gathering of hippies still surrounded the NSWPP activists. More Park Police were brought into the area, according to the source, to avoid a further confrontation between the crowd and the NSWPP and at approximately 3:30 p.m. both sides left the area without further incident.

Summary of Facts Upon Which Adex Recommendation is Based

The following information was obtained from informants who have provided reliable information in the past.

WOLFGANG HANS HEINRICH SCHRODT has been a known supporter of the American Nazi Party since 1965. He recently has become active in the solication of funds and members for the NSWPP.

He has approached servicemen in the Baltimore area and attempted to recruit them into his organization.

MATT KOEHL, Commander of the NSWPP, has personally selected SCHRODT to organize and lead the NSWPP Chapter in the Baltimore area. SCHRODT is a confirmed Nazi and has exhibited his violent propensities by attacking hecklers from the Jewish Defense League (JDL) which attempted to disrupt an NSWPP rally in Washington, D. C. on June 1, 1971.

SCHRODT has participated in numerous demonstrations in Washington, D. C., and along with other Baltimore supporters of the NSWPP regularly distributes Racist Flyers in the Baltimore area.

In January of 1972, SCHRODT purchased a rowhouse in Baltimore. He is currently remodeling this house and it will serve as the Maryland Headquarters for the NSWPP.

In view of revised ADEX criteria, dated 1/20/72, SCHRODT is being recommended for Category II of the ADEX.

Baltimore is placing case in a pending inactive status and will activate for annual report due 7/15/72.

and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and foreign countries.

Robert Van Kuren, Inspectional Services, Baltimore City Police Department, and a second confidential source, contact with whom has been insufficient to judge the reliability, advised that during the afternoon of August 26, 1972, about nine or ten individuals in NSWPP uniform, including Matt Koehl, Commander, Robert Homan, Richard Biederman, and Patrick McKinney, from NSWPP Headquarters, Arlington, Virginia, were present at the Baltimore Headquarters, 2112 Eastern Avenue. Some of the NSWPP participants passed out literature in front of the headquarters, and passersby were invited to enter. The front of the headquarters building was draped with a swastika banner flanked by the United States and Maryland flags.

By around five to six p.m., a crowd of 50 or so people had gathered in the street in front of the headquarters. They were jeering at the NSWPP activists and some tomatoes and eggs were thrown. Several scuffles broke out and Southeastern District police officers moved in and arrested three adults and one juvenile in the crowd on disorderly conduct charges. The NSWPP activists withdrew inside the headquarters, locking the door and pulling the shades, and the crowd dispersed.

Later in the evening, a crowd again gathered and Robert Ellsworth Lyons, a local NSWPP supporter, came to the door of the headquarters, exposed himself to the crowd, and yelled, "White power". Police officers then entered the headquarters and arrested Lyons. He was charged with indecent exposure, and was released on bail. His trial was postponed until September 13, 1972 at Southeastern District. By approximately eleven p.m., conditions had returned to normal in the neighborhood.

TO : SAC, Baltimore (157-5521) (P)

DATE: 8/30/72

FROM : SA JOHN J. GROGAN

SUBJECT: WOLFGANG SCHRODT
EM - NSWPP

On 8/29/72, JOHN BEEVER, John Dittmar and Sons, Inc., 800 E. Pratt Street, Baltimore, Maryland, telephone 752-1671, advised that WOLFGANG SCHRODT, a driver for the company, had confided in him regarding the opening of the NSWPP Headquarters on Eastern Avenue on 8/26/72. SCHRODT said his activities in this connection might create publicity and possible violence and he realized the company might not want to retain him because of this. Mr. BEEVER said that since probably most of his Negro employees are aware of the incident surrounding the opening of the headquarters, he does not believe he would be able to continue SCHRODT as an employee.

Mr. BEEVER described SCHRODT as an excellent driver for the company and a "nice guy" who has not had any serious problems with other employees. Mr. BEEVER said SCHRODT is not a violent man, but is very firm in his political convictions and is willing to accept the consequences of his actions. Mr. BEEVER said that when he asked SCHRODT how he would get along without a job, SCHRODT said that would be taken care of and did not appear concerned about his finances.

Toss Chair At Home of Nazi Chief

Wolfgang Schrodt, the local leader of the American Nazi Party, reported to police Tuesday night, somebody threw a chair through the window of his house and then threatened him with a gun.

Schrodt said the incident occurred shortly before 9 a.m. at his home in the 2100 block Eastern Ave. which also serves as the party's headquarters.

When the wooden chair came flying through the window, Schrodt told the police, he went outside to investigate. He said the man who threw the piece of furniture pulled a revolver.

"I have a gun," the man told Schrodt.

"I can get a gun, too," Schrodt told the man.

So, the police report said, Schrodt went inside his house and came out with a rifle. He said the man disappeared.

Schrodt's house was the scene Saturday where a neighborhood crowd of about 200 persons gathered to protest a Nazi flag hanging outside Schrodt's window. The flag was taken down when police arrived.

Nazi Party Chief Chases Vandals

The chairman of Baltimore's chapter of the American Nazi party chased two vandals, one of them armed with a pistol, away from party headquarters last night when he threatened to get his own gun.

Southeastern district police said Wolfgang Schrodt, 34, whose home in the 2100 block of Eastern avenue serves as the headquarters, confronted the men after one of them had heaved a chair through a window, valued at $50.

Mr. Schrodt told police that when he raced outside, one of the men pulled a pistol from his belt. The party chairman said he told the man, "I've got a gun, too," and ran back inside to get it.

Facts of complaint

Complainant advised that the National Socialist White Peoples' Party Bookstore, 2112 Eastern Avenue, opened for business on 8/26/72, and since that time he and the Baltimore City Police Dept. have received several telephonic bomb threats. On Saturday evening, 8/26/72, a gang of "young hippies, radicals, leftists, and Maoist's" gathered at the front of the book store and shouted insults, threw rocks, bottles and other debris, breaking several windows. Several members of the NSWPP went outside and a small fight ensued whereupon one of the crowd drew a pistol and threatened a member of the NSWPP. Complainant then called the Baltimore City PD; however, the police did not respond for at least ½ hour. Upon their arrival they only took physical descriptions of the alleged offenders and left. The crowd began to build up again and he called the police a second time. This time they did not respond for 1½ hour. During the interim several of the crowd threatened to throw molotov cocktails which were not in evidence.

Complainant advised that about 9:30 PM, 8/29/72, a similar incident occurred at the bookstore. There was more fighting, bottle throwing, insults hurled, and threats to bomb and burn the store. Again the police were slow in responding.

CHARLES SAUNDERS of St. Petersburg, Fla. was recently overheard to remark that "HAPPY" SKAFF of Tampa, Fla. is going back to Lebanon.

DENNIS BRUCKER of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) in Englewood, Fla. lost his job as a result of his participation in the NSWPP rally at the political convention in Miami, Fla. EUGENE HOUGH of the NSWPP in that area obtained another job for BRUCKER in a furniture store in that area. Nothing additional is known in this regard.

JERRY JACKSON is talking about leaving the NSWPP, because he thinks that they consider him to be a coward. He apparently likes to "dabble" in various organizations for short periods of time and then lose interest. He subscribes to the "Thunderbolt" published by the National States Rights Party, a paper published by DAVE DUKE, formerly of the NSWPP in Louisiana, and

About 50 to 75 individuals representing residents of the 1st Councilmanic District, Baltimore City, were present and a number of individuals including the councilmanic representatives testified before the board.

SCHRODT was represented by WILLIAM ZINMAN, ACLU Attorney. Also present were ROBERT LYONS, MIKE VELAZQUEZ and WAYNE MANDZUIK who was identified by Officer BOB VAN KUREN, Baltimore Police Department. All the NSWPP members were dressed in suit and tie.

Nazi bookstore's zoning is rescinded

By ANTERO PIETILA

In an action without precedent in the city's recent history, the Zoning Board last night withdrew its 3-month-old approval for a self-admitted neo-Nazi to operate a bookstore out of his house in the 2100 block Eastern avenue.

The ruling came after a heated three-hour hearing attended by a handful of neo-Nazis and about 60 irate Southeast Baltimore residents and community leaders, whose loud protests against the ideological operation were rivaled only by noisy legal exchanges between lawyers for the two sides.

The board's decision was a victory for the area residents. They had been on a warpath ever since Wolfgang Schrodt, 34, turned his residence into a center for ideological activity a year ago for the National Socialist White People's Party.

Daily, residents told the Zoning Board, they could see the red, white and black swastika flag fly in front of Mr. Schrodt's house in an area where many a resident lost his relative in Hitler's holocaust.

The Zoning Board based its decision on two grounds: (1) that a bookstore in the meaning of an ordinance does not exist at the location, (2) the existing operation is spreading literature whose sole purpose seems to be inciting unrest in the area.

"Repulsive to me"

A complex legal challenge of the board's ruling was promised last night by William H. Zinman, who represented Mr. Schrodt on the behest of the American Civil Liberties Union.

Mr. Zinman said he is planning to take the case to the Federal District Court of Baltimore on the basis that the board's ruling violates Mr. Schrodt's First Amendment rights.

"It is a matter of principle," the lawyer said. Noting that he is a Jew, Mr. Zinman continued: "His [Mr. Schrodt's] ideology is totally repulsive to me, but the question is about his rights—and mine."

The neo-Nazi operation's opposition in the hearing was led by persons straight out of East Baltimore's present and past political "Who's Who."

There was Benjamin A. (Railroad Ben) Mrozinski, a retired Penn Central conductor and former state legislator; there was Edward B. Rybczynski, a former Liquor Board member and Orphans Court judge, and there was Joseph J.

Kaczynski, commander of Post 95 of the American Legion.

The First Councilmanic district's three representatives, Dominic (Mimi) DiPietro, Barbara A. Mikulski and John A. Schafer, also were there.

"No one objects to a bookstore with regular hours. But it is not a bookstore, it is a political party," declared Miss Mikulski.

"It is nothing more than a facade, a disguise," seconded Mr. Schafer. "This type of literature creates hatred, hostilities. We saw the effect of this back in the '30's . . . we all know what it grew into."

Many opponents of the operation told the board about disturbances in the area which allegedly were prompted by the presence of the neo-Nazis.

Harrowing story

Probably the most harrowing was the story of Mr. Kaczynski, who testified that he once took a fire bomb away from an irate area resident who threatened to use it against the neo-Nazi operation.

And on Lincoln's birthday, February 12, about 300 people were about to invade the Nazi base because of the swastika flag, the American Legion commander said. Only the fact that the neo-Nazis voluntarily took the flag away prevented that, he said.

Mr. Schrodt, who said he came to the United States 22 years ago "from a European country," testified that he had not made any profit with his operation. An unemployed truck driver, he refused to disclose whether he received any funds from outside to continue his unprofitable enterprise.

"None of your business"

"That's none of your business," he told an inquiring board member.

Mr. Schrodt, who was wearing a black suit and tie but no insignia, readily admitted his books mostly dealt with racial matters.

"What kinds of racial matters?" inquired Kenneth O. Wilson, a black member of the board.

"Giving scientific proof of . . ." started Mr. Schrodt.

But Mr. Wilson took the cue and continued: ". . . of racial inequality. Now how can you try to do that?"

Believed unprecedented

"I don't know," answered Mr. Schrodt, "I just handle the books."

Philip H. Sachs, the Zoning Board's chairman, last night said the decision was made primarily on the basis of no bona fide bookstore being at the Eastern avenue location, and without political considerations.

Gilbert V. Rubin, who has been the board's executive secretary for more than 20 years, said he did not recall any previous decision in which an existing book-distributing operation's zoning permit has been taken away.

Ken Coburn

Tacoma, WA 98405

Dear Ken:

I am really sorry that I haven't kept in touch with you and Ralph. I have had the intention of getting down to Tacoma on several occasions, but I've simply been too involved with things up here in Seattle.

I am no longer connected with the NSWPP, as you can see from the enclosed letter from their National Secretary. It was quite a disappointment for me to receive this letter, and I believe that Mr. Homan wrote it more from spite and personal misunderstanding than from a sincere belief that I am opposed to National Socialism.

No one in the Pacific Northwest has worked so hard or sacrificed so much to build support for the National Socialist Movement. This includes Mr. Homan, who has spent much of his time and resources acquiring momentoes of the Third Reich rather than engaging in genuine political activism. I won't criticize Bob's intentions, though, for I sincerely believe that he is a dedicated and hard-working National Socialist, now.

Mr. Matt Koehl's insistance on loyalty oaths and blind obedience are just further indications of the weakness of this man's character in inspiring loyalty and dedication. Koehl is not a natural leader, and most people in the Party who knew Commander Rockwell have easily recognized this fact.

It is interesting and important to note in the final paragraph of the enclosed letter of Homan's that he casually mentions the Baltimore matter. The Baltimore matter concerned an individual by the name of Wolfgang Schrodt who was (and may still be) local NSWPP organizer in that city and a member of the Party's "central committee". It just so happens that Mr. Schrodt, with the full knowledge of Matt Koehl, carried on an active sexual relationship with an 18-year old Indian woman in the very building from which he was running a National Socialist headquarters.

By today's "standards" of general moral conduct that might not sound like much, but the effect on the morale of fellow Party comrades has been severe. Persons who attempted to point this out to Matt Koehl

Best available image

[illegible] subsequently removed from their positions in the Party. This [illegible] not done very subtely either. One such person, Dennis Nix, who had recently become illustrator for the newspaper, White Power, was threatened by the business manager with a shotgun and not allowed to pick up his personal belongings until the Arlington police intervened.

Additionally, I have confirmed through several sources that Matt Koehl has indeed associated and lived with known homosexuals at an earlier period in his life. One such individual, a certain [redacted] FOIA(b)(6) FOIA(b)(7) - (C) recently tried to pay Koehl a visit and, of course, Koehl could not be found in the vicinity. As for Robert Homan, I have been acquainted with him for the last six or seven years. He is a sincere person, but I cannot believe that he is loyal to Koehl out of principles or honor or anything else. It remains a question mark.

Anyway, I don't think it is necessary to trouble you with any more of the disgusting details of the situation within the NSWPP. I have tried to work with the people involved, and I have discovered that it has gotten me absolutely nowhere. The NSWPP itself has not grown appreciably in the last 5 years, compared to the amount of effort expended, the publicity afforded it, and the circumstances of the Nation. To win political power in America for White people, National Socialism must take on a different form than mere imitation of Nazi Germany.

At this time, I believe the National Youth Alliance has the best activist program for building support for the future National revolution. You cannot win any sort of team effort without first training personnel. A person does not just join up with the Green Bay Packers and expect to automatically develop into a star quarterback. If the Packers recruited people off the street it would no doubt take many, many months of training to produce many successful athletes. The same goes for political parties. A Party can't expect to get very far without knowledgeable people, without trained and seasoned personnel.

To attempt a fantastically enormous task of pulling off a political and social change of such far reaching effects as a National Revolution requires tremendous motivating forces. Such forces do not exist now in America, but it is conceivable that they may within the next 15-20 years. Therefore, the real task of the Movement is to prepare our people to take on the responsibility of leadership and self-improvment. It is the only way to secure victory. Nothing in this World worth having has ever come easy or without sacrifice.

If you are interested in continuing your support for National Socialism, let me know by mail. I'll try to get down to talk with you and Ralph in the near future.

PATRICK CHARLES MC KINNEY

On June 14, 1973, at Topeka, Kansas, Patrick Charles McKinney voluntarily furnished the following information:

He is currently employed as a security guard for the Capitol Area Security Police, State House Complex, Topeka, Kansas, and his employer is the State of Kansas. He resides at 822 West 6th Street, Topeka, Kansas, with his mother, Esther McKinney.

McKinney advised his political background has always been extremely conservative and while in college in approximately 1966-1967, he was a member of the John Birch Society for a period of one year. He became disenchanted with this organization because it was non active and the members simply paid dues and did not get involved in anything. He then entered the U. S. Navy and while stationed at Guam, he applied for a hardship discharge due to his mother having a heart attack and being left in poor health.

While awaiting for his discharge, he obtained a Hitler's "Mein Kamph" from the Navy library on Guam and was very impressed with this book. After being discharged he returned to the United States in 1968 and wrote to the National Socialist White Peoples Party (NSWPP) at Arlington, Virginia, and asked them for literature. He also reread "Mein Kamph" for the second time and in 1969 he joined the NSWPP by using an application form which he had obtained from them. He submitted dues in the amount of $2 per month and he recalled that he joined the NSWPP while he was living in San Francisco in approximately August 1969.

At that time he was attending a mortician's school in San Francisco, California, however, he subsequently gave up the school because of problems regarding credits from his previousattendance at Washburn University in Topeka, Kansas. In the fall of 1969, he returned to Topeka, Kansas, and remained there for approximately one month, then he traveled to Arlington, Virginia, to look over the NSWPP and to get involved in party activities. He remained in Arlington and obtained a job at the Holiday Inn in Arlington, working for approximately four or five weeks. He then returned to Topeka, Kansas, to help his mother and remained in Topeka for approximately eight months, working as a night auditor for Ramada Inn, during which time he continued to become more interested in the party activities of the NSWPP.

> The NSWPP, also known as The American Nazi Party, American Nazis, and The George Lincoln Rockwell Party, was organized on February 26, 1956, at Arlington, Virginia, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movementas espoused by the German Nazi Party headed by Adolf Hitler. The organization supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and foreign countries.

He advised he left Topeka again in April 1970 and returned to Arlington, Virginia. He became involved in activities at the NSWPP headquarters, where he became a duty officer standing security guard, however, he did not live at headquarters but was employed at the Holiday Inn at Arlington, as a desk clerk. In this regard, he noted that most of the party activity occurs on weekends and holidays as most of the members have full-time jobs.

He recalled that on approximately April 21, 1970, he was one of six persons who participated in a rally at

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 56

Lafayette Park in downtown Washington, D.C., across from the White House. He believes this was the annual Hitler birthday rally celebrating Hitler's birthday of April 20. He recalled this demonstration called for all the participants to be in the uniform of the NSWPP storm trooper, which is a brown shirt, black slacks, black tie and combat boots, swastika arm bands, and motorcycle helmets.

He recalled that on about April 24, 1970, left and liberal oriented groups gathered in Washington, D.C. for a demonstration and the commander of the NSWPP, Matthias Koehl, decided a group of Party members should oppose the leftists who were carrying Vietcong flags, and they should be opposed by storm troopers carrying American flags. In this regard, about 20 storm troopers consisting of a volunteer group, marched from party headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, carrying United States flags and signs to the vicinity of 15th and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington,D.C. At this point, the storm troopers were stopped by the Park Police for lack of a parade permit. The storm troopers were told to take another route, however, they disobeyed the police and proceeded to 15th and Pennsylvania, where they confronted the leftists who were throwing various objects at the storm troopers. A fight broke out between the storm troopers and the leftists, however the police broke up the fight with mace. Three of the storm troopers, one of whom was Commander Koehl, were arrested and the other storm troopers left the area.

He recalled on approximatev July 3 and 4, 1970, there were also rallies at Lafayette Park and that he participated in these rallies. There were approximately 50 people in uniform each day and they received some agitation from the spectators, consisting of "Negroes and crazy Jews."

In approximately August 1970, he became the National Party business manager at NSWPP headquarters and he quit his job at the Holiday Inn.

In September 1970, the annual NSWPP party congress was held at a Holiday Inn located on Telegraph Road in Alexandria, Virginia. This was a two-day meeting and approximately 150 persons came to this congress from throughout the United States.

At approximately this time, he obtained a 1961 Ford school bus, yellow in color, which was converted into a semi-camper for use by the party. A party trip shortly after the annual congress in September 1970, was made through the southern states and he joined the group at Mobile, Alabama, as a relief driver. He drove the last half of the trip and recalls the trip lasted approximately 2-3 weeks. The purpose of the trip was for the purpose of recruiting, and the bus contained signs calling for a boycott of school bussing for segregation. He recalls this trip started with more than a dozen persons and two vehicles, however, one vehicle and several of the persons were from the State of California and they traveled to the Gulf Coast states before proceeding west to California. He stated approximately six persons made the entire trip. He noted this bus was used all over the eastern coast for trips on behalf of the party; also trips were made to Detroit and Cleveland to assist in rallies in those cities. The bus was used extensively in the Washington, D.C. area and he became the official party bus driver, which called for him to spend most of his time with the bus instead of participating in demonstrations.

The summer of 1971 was a fairly active summer for the NSWPP and recruiting for new members was stepped up. He recalled participating in several rallies and demonstrations and that he was arrested at a rally involving Carl McIntyre, a Presbyterian minister. He stated at the time of the rally in Washington, D.C., he was not in uniform but was stopped by the Park Police and searched. He was carrying mace and was arrested for possession of the mace.

In the late summer of 1971, some changes took place at party headquarters which eventually caused McKinney to leave the party. He recalled, at the 1970 party congress William Kirstein, who was ranked as a Captain in the Membership Section and was the second in command on a national level, at party headquarters, became involved with a girl and got her credentials to attend the 1970 congress. He was opposed by several of the other national party members, claiming she was a "plant", whereupon Commander Koehl told Kirstein he had to either leave the girl or the party, whereupon Kirstein left the NSWPP.

PATRICK CHARLES MC KINNEY

After Kirstein left, McKinney took over several of his duties as the staff became short-handed. Commander Koehl did not make any new appointments inasmuch as he was waiting for the return of Robert Holman, who was serving in the U. S. Army. In approximately July 1971, Robert Holman was released from the Army and returned to the national staff of the NSWPP, replacing Kirstein. McKinney noted Holman had previously been on the national staff prior to being drafted into the armed forces and was a close friend of Commander Koehl.

One Floyd Julliard had worked in the headquarters building and in approximately May 1971, he was working in the mail department when he was placed as head of security for the national headquarters.

McKinney did not get along with either Holman or Julliard. Holman was the membership secretary and national party office manager and in this position, was the second man in the party incontrol, although he is not a leadership type person in any respect. Holman wanted to make changes in the procedures at headquarters which would include additional costs to the party. The party was always in a financial difficulty, never having enough funds to take care of bills and it was McKinney's job as business manger to handle the funds as efficiently as possible. In view of this, he ran into problems with Holman, inasmuch as Holman had to have monogram stationery of his own and a private room in the house. He was wasteful with funds and McKinney had several arguments with him about funds.

McKinney had several arguments with Julliard over security of national headquarters as security was extremely lax at the headquarters building. Prior to the 1971 party congress, McKinney became thoroughly disgusted with Holman and Julliard and the state of affairs on the national level. He resigned from the position of business manager on the national staff and also resigned his party membership. However, at the personal request of Commander Koehl, he returned to the party headquarters; however, he had been removed from his position as business manager for the national party.

He was merely used as a bookeeper and on the duty roster was listed as a guard.

He subsequently had trouble with Julliard over guard duty schedules and was accused of trying to break things up in the party. Julliard also threatened to lower his rank in the storm troopers organization as Julliard was in charge of the storm troopers.

At the end of September McKinney quit the party and returned to Topeka, Kansas. He noted at this time he was living with his mother at a private apartment in the house leased by the NSWPP at 5727 South 5th Road, Arlington, Virginia. He noted he did not pay rent, nor did his mother pay rent for this apartment, as the house had been leased by McKinney in his name from the Holley Real Estate firm at Arlington, Virginia. Also, McKinney noted the bus used by the party had been registered in McKinney's name and he was the person who obtained the loan for the purchase of the bus. Another person in the party headquarters, one Bill Striker, who was editor of the newspaper, bought the bus from McKinney and the bus was titled in the name of Striker, who later signed it over to the NSWPP. McKinney advised after returning to Topeka, Kansas, with his mother, he continued to receive bulletins and newspapers from the NSWPP although he has not paid any dues since leaving in September. He advised he believes he is probably still carried as a party member and recalled Julliard is now the business manager for the party.

McKinney advised that his mother has a heart problem and has a "pace setter" installed. She has never been a member of the NSWPP and was simply visiting in Washington, D.C. and not making her permanent home there.

After McKinney returned to Topeka, Kansas, he was joined by Emil Pennick and his wife, Virginia Pennick nee Williams. He recalled Pennick had been the organizer at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for the NSWPP but gave up his position there and moved to Arlington, Virginia. Pennick was a roofer and worked for the Cobert Enterprises and Roofing Company. McKinney also worked there for a short period of time and he became better acquainted with Pennick.

After Pennick moved to Topeka, Kansas, he and McKinney entered into business together operating Emilio's Restaurant, which they operated for approximately three months, however, due to severe winter weather the business failed. After that, Pennick obtained a job at the Allis-Chalmers plant in Topeka, Kansas. Sometime in about March 1973, he contacted Pennick and advised him it would be necessary to get some money together as they needed to pay the taxes and back debts on the restaurant, whereupon Pennick without notice left his employment and place of residence in Topeka, Kansas, and reportedly moved to California. He stated during the time they were living in Topeka, Kansas, his wife Virginia Pennick, had a baby and they have all reportedly moved to Los Angeles, California, area. He stated Pennick was discouraged by the activity in the NSWPP and he believes that he is probably out of the party at this time. Virginia Pennick was never a party member but only a supporter at Los Angeles and in Arlington, Virginia.

McKinney furnished the following information in regard to individuals on the national staff of the NSWPP:

Matthias Koehl, Jr.

Koehl joined the party in 1960 and was the local organizer in the Chicago, Illinois, area. In 1966 the party had a very successful march in Chicago and Koehl was brought to Arlington, Virginia, to be next in line under the founder of the NSWPP, George Lincoln Rockwell. When Rockwell was assassinated, Koehl was appointed commander by the Council of Succession. McKinney considers Koehl to be rather odd person in that he is a stickler for trivia, however, he is politically smart and was responsible for a lot of good planning on political events. He recalled the party almost went under when Rockwell was assassinated however Koehl was able to hold the party together. He does not believe Koehl has the ability to be a judge of personalities and the party has not made any real progress under his leadership.

Dr. William Pierce

Pierce had been the business manger under George Lincoln Rockwell and later, under Commander Koehl. Pierce allegedly tried to take over the party by dividing the membership, etc., however, not in a violent manner. He further noted that Pierce operated the National Youth Alliance (NYA) in the Washington, D.C. area, which was a mail order operation of the Nazi type organization. Pierce was reportedly a PhD in the field of psychology and hence receive the title of Doctor Pierce.

> The NYA is an organization originally formed from a nucleus of Youth for (George C.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. NYA currently is controlled by individuals who militantly promote white racism and anti-Zionism and who suggest violent revolution ultimately as the means for implementing their racial and political ideas in America.

Robert Saunders

Saunders became the party business manager following the removal of Pierce from that office. Saunders came to Arlington, Virginia, from Florida and he moved his family to Arlington, Virginia, with him. He left the party in the fall of 1970, at which time McKinney took over as the national business manager. He recalled Saunders was in fact a marine biologist and simply could not support his family on the money he was earning from party headquarters. Saunders upon leaving national headquarters of the NSWPP returned to his home in Florida. He further recalled Pierce had committed party funds for several pieces of office equipment, however Saunders did not bother to pay for these things and upon his leaving, McKinney had numerous problems with suppliers who wanted to repossess some of the equipment.

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 62

PATRICK CHARLES MC KINNEY

Donald Dexter

Dexter was an assistant to William Striker on the newspaper staff and in charge of printing. He was considered to be extremely capable. He was married and lived away from other party people and he left the party for the purpose of moving to Peoria, Illinois, to take up his father's business. His wife was Lee Dexter, who was also a party member and who did a lot of paper work at the party headquarters.

Richard Biederman

Biederman was in charge of the storm troopers and was responsible for some of the mailing out of the national headquarters. He was transferred to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, to become the local organizer and subsequently transferred to Cleveland, Ohio, to help organize in that community. Mr. Biederman had the reputation of being a good operator in the streets during the course of demonstrations, fights, etc. However, he was not particularly a good staff member. He was last known to be working in Cleveland, Ohio.

Robert Lloyd

Lloyd had originally been with George Lincoln Rockwell and was national membership secretary under Rockwell's leadership. He was subsequently relieved of his duties and placed in charge of the party's book store. He abscounded with all the material and joined with Dr. Pierce in Pierce's operation with the NYA. Lloyd originally came from Richmond, Virginia.

William Grimstad
also known as
William Striker,
Bill Striker

Grimstad is the true name of this individual and he was the editor of the newspaper and considered to be very capable. He was quite active in planning street activity and did a great deal of his own photographic work. He left the party for the purpose of taking care of his personal business and moved to Florida. He was subsequently known to McKinney to be the LosAngeles member of the party, however his activities in that unit are unknown to McKinney.

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 63

William Kirstein

Kirstein was a wealthy individual who came from California after having started out with the Los Angeles unit of the SWP. In McKinney's opinion Kirstein ruined the Los Angeles unit and in his opinion Kirstein is not a good leader. He had a good appearance and was a fairly good speaker and McKinney does not believe he is currently in the NSWPP. He recalled Kirstein had been a member of the U. S. armed forces, however, he told his superiors he was a Nazi and was shortly thereafter released from the armed forces. McKinney did not know the current location but does not believe he is still a member of the NSWPP.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Capt. Joe Tommaisi

Tommaisi runs the NSWPP unit at Los Angeles, having taken it over from Kirstein. Tommaisi is an extremely active leader and keeps the Los Angeles unit together. McKinney is of the opinion that if Tommaisi left Los Angeles, that unit would fall apart and the party relies upon him a great deal to keep it together. Kirstein and Tommaisi were close friends.

Wolfgang Schrodt

Schrodt operates the news unit located at Baltimore, Maryland, and he is considered by the party to be a good leader. He got involved with an Indian girl which has caused him some problems in the party due to the fact he married outside the white race. He noted the party has been harrassed by the Baltimore Police Department and the city government, however, Schrodt has been able to keep it together.

Casey Kolumba

Kolumba was the former leader at Cleveland, Ohio, and was a very active individual in an active unit. Biederman is now assisting Kolumba in running this unit in Cleveland, Ohio. He stated Kolumba is highly thought of by the party,

PATRICK CHARLES MC KINNEY

Capt. Chris Vendovitch (phonetic)

Vendovitch is an old time party member who was extremely active in the Chicago area and took over that area when Koehl left. He subsequently moved to Arlington, Virginia, however, he has not been very active lately as he has a job which takes much of his time. He may help out at headquarters doing guard duty, however, he is not as active as he used to be.

On June 18, 1973, McKinney returned to complete the interview in this matter and furnished the following information:

Joe Bishop

Bishop came from Seattle, Washington, to Arlington, Virginia, and at the time he arrived there in 1971 at the party congress, he was a miner. He remained in Arlington working at headquarters doing guard duty and other odd jobs. He now runs themail order department and at approximately Christmas time 1972, he allegedly shot himself accidently with a carbine. He is reportedly back on the job at the present time.

McKinney advised the staff at the present time, to the best of his knowledge, consists of the following persons:

Commander

Matthias Koehl, Jr. is commander of the party in the United States.

The second command is Robert Holman, who also serves as membership secretary.

The business manager is Floyd Julliard.

The mail order department is currently operated by Joe Bishop.

The newspaper editor is (FNU) Covington.

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 65

McKinney advised there are probably two or three other persons standing guard duty in the headquarters office area. These people change frequently.

He stated many of the people he worked with are probably no longer at the headquarters. Furthermore, the party has now rented a house at Falls Church, Virginia, exact location unknown to McKinney, nor does he know how many members of the staff are living at the house. The house previously leased at Arlington, Virginia, by McKinney is no longer used by the staff group.

In regard to recruiting matters, they had to get their recruits from northern urban areas and from southern states as it was impossible to obtain recruits in Negro areas.

He stated the party received practically no support in the Washington, D.C. area because of the heavy concentration of Negroes residing in that area.

He stated the party was financed by membership dues primarily. Supporter dues were required as $2 per month and membership dues are now 10 percent of the total monthly income of the member, however, in the past it was $5 per month. Finances have always been tight for the party and additional funds were obtained from selling of newspapers, books and leaflets. The newspaper "White Power" is a monthly paper sold on the streets by party members and supporters, also by subscription. The monthly bulletin was also published and refers to activities of the party. On a quarterly basis the "National Socialist World Bulletin" is also published.

Recruiting is done through the local organizers in the local units, primarily through rallies and demonstrations. Recorded messages are also used for telephone contacts as well as newspaper and other publication advertisements and finally through personal contact by party members. There are no regular recruiting campaigns and in fact, the national party does not push recruitment very hard. He declined to comment on the number of members in the party, however, he claimed it is surprisingly low.

The total income per year for the party is usually less than $50,000, however this varies from year to year and funds go only to the national headquarters operation. Most work at the headquarters is donated by persons working there.

In regard to firearms, party personnel are not required to have guns. At the headquarters building, there are approximately four or five guns and all of them are kept in a loaded condition. He recalls there was one P-38 pistol usually carried by the armed guard. There is one shotgun and two rifles. Also, there is usually a pistol kept in the commander's office. All of these weapons are used strictly for protection and security of the building. He stated that after Bishop shot himself the Arlington Police Department confiscated the guns at the headquarters, however, he does not know if they have been returned. There is no regular drill or exercises with the weapons and absolutely no training is done with them.

In regard to the ideology of the party, the party feels that further economic difficulty in the U.S. will eventually bring on a depression resulting in a revolution. At this point, the party believes the government will collapse and a large number of the American people would be willing to join with the party to take over the government. He stated there are absolutely no plans for forceful overthrow of the United States by the party. He noted the party is set up on the national socialist system as espoused by Hitler. This is a system of government controls along with private enterprise and embracing a racial doctrine. The most important single aspect in national socialism is the racial part of the system. The party feels that only people of the white race should be involved with the party and that these persons should be able to control their own way of life without being involed with the minorities. He stated the minority is anyone who is non-white. The party is absolutely against any mixing of races or cultures and is totally against communism. The party does not encourage party candidates for local offices and in regard to possible take-over of the government in the United States, it would keep the constitution.

PATRICK CHARLES MC KINNEY

The book "Mein Kamph" is virtually required reading for the purpose of being able to understand national socialism. So as a result of this, the party relies heavily on the German influence in its selection of German marching music and other matters regarding the culture of the party. The leadership presently favors the German influence without realizing the need to Americanize the party and make itmore acceptable to American citizens.

It is the party's plan that national socialism in the United States would be similar to that in Germany during the Hitler regime.

He listed the following items which would come into existence in the event national socialism should succeed in the United States:

1) All non-whites would not be entitled to own property or to participate in government.

2) The party would encourage sending of Negroes to Africa.

3) All assets of Jewish persons in this country would be taken over by the government.

4) Labor unions would be dissolved as such and given a position in the party.

5) There would be one man type of leadership in the form of a dictator.

6) There would only be one political party, the National Socialist Party.

In regard to the above, he noted the party advocates white dominance and the removal of citizenship status to all non-whites.

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 68

He further noted there is a world union of national socialists which includes 16 countries and the principle is to encourage alliance with national socialists abroad through correspondence. He noted Australia, Canada, Germany and others have national socialist parties, however, there are no parties in South America. The strongest of the national socialist parties abroad is located in Australia, which runs equal for office on all political levels in Australia. He noted the United States party does maintain contact with parties in other countries through correspondence.

McKinney advised he left the party because as business manager on the national level, his job was also to advise Commander Koehl in regard to financial situations. He had no authority over anyone else in the party and when Koehl brought in Julliard and Holman, a conflict broke out between him and the other two. He recalled Holman tried to change party activities back to the way it had been when he had been on the staff prior to entering the armed forces. McKinney was eased out of his position as business manager by Julliard and Holman although Julliard had been brought in simply to work on the newspaper. There were no charges filed against McKinney nor was there any court-martial held, however, Koehl would not back McKinney in the dispute. McKinney was accused by rumor only of trying to take over the party and of stealing party funds.

McKinney considers himself a national socialist and believes that system of government could be successfully operated in the United States, however, he does not believe the present leadership is capable of operating any type of government nor does he believe it is a threat to the United States. He believes it is a fraud at the present time on the part of those persons who are getting new members to join. He feels some loyalty to the national socialist movement but not to the present NSWPP organization and leadership. McKinney stated he does not believe that he really and truly appreciates the democratic process and that he thinks the national socialist form of government might be the best form for this nation.

PATRICK CHARLES MC KINNEY

He stated he does not believe he is capable of running the NSWPP as the commander but he would go back to the party for the purpose of helping a good leader. Also, to assist the party in moving away from the Germanic influence and the incompetent leaders currently in power. He advised there is no local chapter of the NSWPP at Topeka, Kansas, and he is no longer interested in any further contact with the party, nor is he paying his monthly dues.

McKinney is described as follows:

Re Bulet to Alexandria 5/18/73; Alexandria letter to Bureau 6/1/73.

Enclosed for Bureau are 5 copies, for Alexandria 15 copies, for Los Angeles 3 copies, and one copy each for Baltimore, Cleveland and WFO of an LHM captioned as above.

The LHM is self-explanatory.

Offices receiving copies of this communication and LHM should review their files to determine if subjects mentioned in the LHM are still under active investigation in that respective office. If not, the information should be forwarded to the current office of origin.

For information of the Bureau, MC KINNEY was most cooperative and appeared to be completely candid in his answers during the course of the interview, which was conducted by SA THOMAS E. KELLY.

He still had some reluctance to discuss specific figures in regard to membership of the NSWPP as well as finances, however, he did note the finances were less than $50,000 per year and fluctuated below that figure. At the conclusion of the interview, MC KINNEY stated he was most willing to be contacted at any time and it was the opinion of interviewing Agent that MC KINNEY still feels some loyalty to the NSWPP but has no use for the current leadership and their programs.

September 4, 1973
Cincinnati, Ohio

Informant advised that he attended the Fifth Annual North American Congress of the World Union of National Socialists, Cleveland, Ohio, on September 1 - 2, 1973. Source advised that he, like other attendees, registered at the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) Bookstore, located at 10012 Lorain Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, on September 1, 1973, in the early morning hours. Registration took place in the NSWPP "White Power Bus". Like all registrants, source advised that each participant paid a $3.00 fee. Registering in the bus were ARTHUR BENEKER, Jeddo, Michigan, and JOHN KRENZER. Source advised, at this time, he had occasion to speak with RICHARD BIEDERMAN, National Headquarters, who told source that 150 individuals had already arrived and registered.

At 8:45 AM, 9/1/73, all the participants in the Congress went to Jefferson Park, located at 10130 Lorain Avenue, for the formation of the Storm Troopers, between 9:00 AM and 11:30 AM. The Storm Troopers were inspected and briefed on what to do and what to possibly expect, during the Storm Troopers' march that would occur around 12 Noon.

During this time at the park, Mayor PERK, Cleveland, Ohio, and police arrived and tried to cancel or revoke the permit they had been issued for the Storm Troopers' march.

Approximately 200 Storm Troopers were in uniform, at this time in the park, but during the inspection quite a few of these people were told they could not march later, that day, because they did not look neat and some had long hair.

At approximately 11:30 AM, on 9/1/73, the Storm Troopers moved to the march site, somewhere near 22nd Street and Euclid Avenue. The Storm Troopers were in formation at approximately 12 Noon and the march started at approximately 12:30 PM. The Troopers marched down Euclid Avenue for about 22 blocks to downtown Cleveland Square where, thereafter, a rally took place. Source estimates that there were approximately 130 marchers, although he noted that information in the "Cleveland Press" Newspaper mentioned that there were only approximately 80 marchers.

The speakers at the rally were BOB HOMAN, ALLEN VINCENT, RALPH FORBES, and MATT KOEHL, National Commander of the NSWPP. The speeches lasted until approximately 12:30 PM and, thereafter, the marchers went back to Jefferson Park, where Commander KOEHL spoke for approximately 30 minutes to the Storm Troopers congratulating them on a job well done.

Informant advised that during the march, there were no incidents of violence or any other problems.

The marchers all wore white helmets, brown shirts, black pants and boots, and all had the red, black and white Swastika armbands.

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 78

After KOEHL spoke to the Storm Troopers at Jefferson Park, the group broke up. The individual Storm Troopers and other participants then had to go back to the NSWPP Bookstore, where each was told of the location of the Congress. Source advised that he was of the opinion that the location for the Congress was being kept secret up until that time, because Commander KOEHL did not want hecklers or trouble makers to appear at the Congress site.

On the evening of 9/1/73, the Congress convened at Lenko Hall, located at 11th and Abbey, Cleveland, Ohio. The Congress started with a welcome address by MATT KOEHL. KOEHL was followed by CEDRIC SYRDAHL, from Chicago, and gave a very short talk centered around what will be happening during the three days of the Congress. He emphasized that the workshops scheduled for Monday, September 3, 1973, should be used by all participants. Thereafter, the meeting was adjourned.

On Sunday, 9/2/73, at 10:00 AM, the Congress reconvened with ROBERT HOMAN as the moderator.

The first order of business was the presentation of local reports, which source advised were short speeches by individuals representing specific units of the NSWPP. These speeches were designed to let the Congress know what the individual units had been doing in their respective areas, during the past year. Local reports were given by the following individuals:

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 79

(FNU) CHIPERNATZ - Chicago, Illinois Unit

CASEY KALEMBA - Cleveland, Ohio Unit

BRUCE MATTHEWS - Los Angeles, California Unit

JAMES RING - Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Unit

GENE HOUGH - St. Petersburg, Florida Unit

CARL HAND - Buffalo, New York Unit

STEVE LOVE - Cincinnati, Ohio Unit

RICHARD PATTON - St. Louis, Missouri Unit

ALLEN VINCENT - San Francisco, California Unit

Following the local reports, BOB HOMAN spoke briefly about the World Union of National Socialists (WUNS) in the following countries:

Australia

Denmark

Germany

Norway

Chile

Argentina

Spain

HOMAN's address was merely a short resume telling of the status of WUNS in the above mentioned countries. Source advised that there was no mention of WUNS in Canada and thought this odd due to the fact that, in the past,

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 80

National Congresses, Canada had always been considered as active in the National Socialists Movement.

The afternoon session began with a State of the Party message by MATT KOEHL. Those of importance in KOEHL's message were the following points:

1. KOEHL stated that the National Council of the NSWPP has been dissolved and is presently being reconstructed The new council will have 11 new ones whom KOEHL will appoint in the future. KOEHLER mentioned that, at this time, the new council has only three members, those being BOB HOMAN, CEDRIC SYRDAHL and JOHN KRENZER.

2. KOEHL advised that the party will not be a political factor in the U. S. until it has radio and TV time. He assured the membership that, in time, the party will get this type of coverage. He stated he was not sure when this time was, but that he was certain that the party will come into its own.

3. KOEHL stated that the NSWPP, as a party, has only one competitor and that this competitor is presently on the decline. Informant advised KOEHL did not mention who the one competitor is, but source assumed KOEHL to mean the National States Rights Party (NSRP), because they are the only right winged group presently with a newspaper and other attractions on par with the NSWPP.

Source advised that after KOEHL's State of the Party message there was to be a Members' Assembly, which in past Congresses included a role call of the states represented. Due to the late schedule, this Members' Assembly was cancelled.

The evening session on 9/2/73, resumed at 9:00 PM. The first order of business, at this session, was an address by MATT KOEHL, entitled "The Future Belongs To Us!".

KOEHL mentioned, during this address, that the NSWPP is the only organization left that can create a positive influence on the American people. He stated membership in the party demands complete loyalty. KOEHL stated that the NSWPP is a totalitarian organization. He emphasized this point by stating that the NSWPP has things to do and that it does not have time to vote and go through all the red tape that the Democratic process needs. He urged the membership to stay in the streets and let the population, the people of America, see the membership working for their party.

After KOEHL's speech they had what was listed on the program as Ceremonies, which included singing and marching.

Informant advised that throughout the convention, there appeared to be more secrecy than during previous conventions. He gave an example as being that the membership was not told of the location of the Congress until the early evening of 9/1/73. Informant also advised that there was more emphasis on the way Storm Troopers looked.

NW 65468 DocId:34618889 Page 82

It was apparent that KOEHL wanted a good showing, and did not want long-haired troopers in disheveled uniforms. Source stated there were no particular plans mentioned for the party, but that the strong themes of KOEHL's message were the need for loyalty and for the party to stay on the streets, and if each individual unit remains on the streets, in various literature distributions, ets., the general population will soon learn that the NSWPP is a political force in their areas.

Present situations in the United States are such that people will start looking for other political parties and if the NSWPP is there, an example to them, the population will return to the NSWPP.

Source advised that on 9/3/73, workshops were to be conducted, but that he was unable to stay for the workshops.

Informant noted the following individuals in attendance at the convention:

MATT KOEHL, Alexandria, Virginia

Source advised that during the entire Congress, JOE TOMASSI, of El Monte, California, was not seen wearing the Storm Troopers' uniform. TOMASSI was not allowed to participate in the march on 9/1/73, and it appeared that he has lost disfavor with the Commander.

Source advised that there were approximately 200 individuals in attendance at the Congress, /50 of which were in the Storm Troopers' uniform. There were no more than 20 women present. There also, but not included in the above numbers, were members of the Western Guard (WG) from Canada who appeared at the NSWPP Bookstore, and went along on the sidewalks with the marchers on 9/1/73. These individuals of the WG, approximately 10 in number, were not permitted to attend the Congress, because they were not recognized by the NSWPP as being members.

Source provided the program for the Fifth Annual North American Congress, as well as the program for the Ceremonies held 9/2/73, which are attached hereto.

WHITE MEN TO ARMS

Look to the east; see the dawn of day.
A symbol of freedom is rising.
We stand fast together – let come what may.
A new age on earth is arising.
So why all the rancor, the worries and woes?
Arise, Aryan men, and defy all your foes!
White men to arms! White men to arms!

Music: Volk ans Gewehr
Words by Matt Koehl

HITLER'S BANNER

Hitler's banner waves above our ranks;
Loyal comrades march along our flanks.
As we fight for the Leader against every odd,
With the banner of youth raised defiant and proud.

Hitler's banner waves above our ranks;
Hitler's banner is the great new age.
Hitler's banner leads on to a world without end.
Yes, His banner is greater than death!

Music: Uns're Fahne flattert uns voran

NATIONAL SOCIALIST BATTLE SONG

We march and fight, to death or on to victory;
Our might is right – no traitor shall prevail;
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!

Our sword is truth, our shield is faith and honor;
In age or youth our hearts and minds we pledge;
Though we may die to save our people and our land,
This cause will stand, our millions marching on!
Though we may die to save our people and our land,
This cause will stand, our millions marching on!

We close our ranks, in loyalty and courage;
To God our thanks for comrades tried and true;
Let traitors quail and fear the wrath of honest men,
Who rise again to smash the devil's throng!
Let traitors quail and fear the wrath of honest men,
Who rise again to smash the devil's throng!

We march and fight, to death or on to victory;
Our might is right – no traitor shall prevail;
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!
Our hearts are steeled against the fiery gates of hell;
No shot or shell can still our mighty song!

On 4/19/74, [redacted] advised that he had received information that WOLFGANG SCHRODT had been demoted from area leader and that ROBERT LYONS will be in charge of the Baltimore NSWPP in the future. SCHRODT will be responsible for the book store and will continue to reside at headquarters.

Source advised that RAMBOW and SUHR are supporters of the NSWPP but are in no way official members. SCHRODT has indicated that he wants nothing to do with either RAMBOW or SUHR and will not accept their membership or support in the NSWPP. Source further stated that SCHRODT and LYONS will travel to Washington, D.C. on 4/20/74 to participate in a demonstration there. Their way of transportation is unknown.

WOLFGANG SCHRODT, dressed in civilian clothing, used a sound track movie camera to document the march. SCHRODT did not participate directly in the march. After reaching City Hall, SCHRODT was observed to depart from the area in a car with Virginia License GBH 401 which was parked about a block away. He was accompanied by a white male, about 5'6" tall, 25 years old, long brown hair, blue denim jacket and pants, who had a small child with him. RE: NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)

On April 23, 1974, files of the office of the Mayor, City of Baltimore, revealed that an application for a parade permit made by WOLFGANG SCHRODT, 2112 Eastern Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, on behalf of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) for a march in downtown Baltimore from Mt. Vernon Square to City Hall between 12 Noon and 4:00 P.M., on April 27, 1974, was granted. The permit approved a march on the sidewalk with gatherings at the Federal Building and City Hall.

by Adolf Hitler. The organization supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews, and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and foreign countries.

WOLFGANG SCHRODT has been identified by a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, as Group Leader of the NSWPP in Baltimore, Maryland.

On April 27, 1974, representatives of the FBI observed the following:

At 12 Noon ten males, representing the NSWPP, dressed in brown shirts, black trousers, white helmets and swastika armbands were assembled at Mount Vernon Square, Baltimore. The group was led by NSWPP Commander MATT KOEHL and RICHARD L. BIEDERMAN. The marchers carried the American flag and Nazi flag and placards with the wording "White Power", "Smash Anti White Trash", "Smash Bussing" and "Stop Black Terror".

The march began about 12:05 P.M. The group proceeded to the New Era Book Shop, 408 Park Avenue, where they paraded in a circle for about 10 minutes.

RE: NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP)

The march continued on the prescribed route through the downtown area to the vicinity of the Federal Plaza, Hopkins Place, where the group paraded for a few minutes. The marchers then proceeded to the area in front of City Hall where they paraded until approximately 1:30 P.M. During the march, the group periodically chanted, "What do we want? White Power". At about 1:30 P.M., the group disbanded and left the area in two vehicles with Virginia Licenses BGL 855 and GBH 401.

Baltimore City police accompanied the marchers and there were no incidents or arrests.

EXTREMIST MATTER - NSWPP

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

[redacted] advised on 9/6/74 that he conferred with MATT KOEHL, National Commander of the NSWPP, in Arlington, Va. on 9/4/74. Informant and KOEHL discussed the following items:

1. The recent court victory by the NSWPP, Bridgeport Unit, in U.S. District Court, New Haven, which restored the party's "White Power" telephone message. KOEHL expressed his pleasure over the victory of the Bridgeport Unit in having telephone service restored. Service was restored in Bridgeport on 9/3/74.

2. Discussed the schism in St. Louis and DENNIS NICKS, former head of the NSWPP in St. Louis. NICKS had been re-instated and since being re-instated he has been repeatedly warned by the national office to conduct NSWPP business according to party regulations. NICKS has refused to contribute financially to the national office and had printed obscene photographs of women on NSWPP literature. NICKS has also utilized NSWPP money for personal items. Because of these activities and other violations, NICKS had been expelled from the party. It was also reported that NICKS had been attempting to form his own party along NSWPP lines but was unsuccessful.

3. KOEHL instructed informant that while serving in the military service, that informants should not get involved in any NSWPP activity. KOEHL desired informant to do his job in the military and in an above average manner so the NSWPP image would be enhanced. KOEHL related that NSWPP bulletins would be sent to the source.

4. KOEHL discussed the NSWPP'S annual congress being cancelled because of the St. Louis schism. KOEHL also related that the congress would not be held this year because of scheduling problems.

5. KOEHL discussed the NSWPP'S future. KOEHL desired to make the NSWPP into a legitimate political party. He wants all NSWPP state leaders to run for political office, no matter how insignificant the office may be. The national NSWPP will support NSWPP candidates financially. KOEHL related that he is also hoping to obtain equal time for political candidates through the media, television, radio and newspapers and so forth. KOEHL hoped the increased media exposure will promote the NSWPP. KOEHL also stated that in connection with his desire to turn the NSWPP into a legitimate political party, he has ordered that all illegal activities, roughnose tactics and channel activities by NSWPP members be stopped. KOEHL asserted that he is carrying this out by tightening up on the membership. He said that any member participating in any illegal or unapproved activities will be expelled.

6. The NSWPP had not been charging visiting members of the NSWPP for being domiciled at its' barracks in Arlington. It has been suggested that a charge be made in the future for visiting members who are domiciled at the party barracks.

Informant also related that during a recent visit of SEAN McGUIRE of NSWPP National Headquarters to Connecticut that McGUIRE mentioned DENNIS NICKS leader of the party in St. Louis. McGUIRE related that NICKS had broken away from the party and that NICKS had voiced a dislike of MATT KOEHL. According to McGUIRE, NICKS had sent letters to al NSWPP leaders across the country asking them to join with him in the formation of a new party.

McGUIRE also advised that WILLIAM SCHROEDT former NSWPP leader in Baltimore had been expelled from the NSWPP because he had been going with an American Indian girlfriend.

Source also revealed that MATT KOEHL has requested that every NSWPP member give at least $25 to the building fund. Since last January, the building fund has raised $8,000 of its' $40,000 goal. KOEHL has also requested leaders in Bridgeport to send all financial records to Arlington, Va. KOEHL also desired that the Bridgeport Unit open a checking account in the party name. FRED SHERWOOD, Bridgeport Unit leader, has been reluctant to open a party checking accoung because $50 is usually the most the Connecticut party has on hand at a given time.

Information copies for Alexandria, Baltimore, and St. Louis Divisions because of their interest in subjects mentioned in this letter.

SUBJECT: WOLFGANG HANS HEINRICH SCHRODT
EM-NSWPP
(OO: BALTIMORE)

Re Baltimore letter to Alexandria, 11/26/74.

[redacted] (protect) advised on 11/5/74 that a statement appeared in the NS BULLETIN, official internal publication of the NSWPP for members and supporters, that ROBERT LYONS (BAfile 157-497) (AXfile 157-387) had replaced WOLFGANG SCHRODT as head of the NSWPP unit in Baltimore, Maryland. Source could not recall the date of the Bulletin in which the article appeared but believed it appeared about April, 1974. Source stated that within the NSWPP SCHRODT had been regarded as not a very qualified individual to head up a unit, probably because of his strong German ethnic background and that during the 1972 party Congress SCHRODT spoke of this and mentioned the difficulty he was having recruiting in the area where the NSWPP unit headquarters in Baltimore was located which was described as a "strong Polish neighborhood." As source could recall, no reason for replacing SCHRODT by LYONS as head of the unit was given in the article.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Source stated that later in conversation with MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR., NSWPP National Commander, source referred to the fact rumor had it that SCHRODT has been purged by the party. KOEHL appeared upset at this rumor and stated that he had not been purged and was still in favor with the party. However, KOEHL stated he gave it up agreeably and realized he was not up to running a party unit. KOEHL, according to source, went to "great pains" to quash any rumors SCHRODT had been purged from the party and according to source apparently remains in good with the party to this date. Source had not seen SCHRODT recently at party headquarters in Arlington and did not remember seeing SCHRODT at any recently held NSWPP demonstrations or rallies.

[redacted] had advised on 1/3/75 that ROBERT LYONS FOIA(b)(7) - (D) is a full member of the NSWPP and is head of the party unit in Baltimore, Maryland. He believed LYONS to work as an accountant, place not known, somewhere in the Baltimore suburbs. He is married and believed to have one daughter. He replaced WOLFGANG SCHRODT as head of the Baltimore party unit in early 1974. Source described LYONS as in good standing with the party, is non-violent and has participated in many NSWPP demonstrations, rallies and other functions as well as literature distributions for the party.

Source stated that WOLFGANG SCHRODT is a full party member. He is a group leader in the NSWPP "Stormtroopers." He resides at and runs the bookstore for the party unit in Baltimore. He apparently owns the bookstore and acts as manager of same. He is believed by source to be non-violent. He is currently unpopular with the party because he lives with an American Indian named DEAN BROOKEY MC GEE who works as a bar maid. Allegedly she helps support the bookstore financially. She is not married to SCHRODT. MATTHIAS KOEHL, JR., National Commander of the NSWPP, is unhappy about SCHRODT living with an Indian, however he refuses to do anything about it. He feels that if he took action against SCHRODT, the party would lose the bookstore as well as SCHRODT and the financial support of the bookstore, SCHRODT and his girlfriend. For this reason, KOEHL does nothing and the party merely refers to SCHRODT's status with the party as "Manager of the party bookstore in Baltimore." Because of the situation, KOEHL appears reluctant to use SCHRODT extensively on other party matters including demonstrations and rallies. Source said the matter with SCHRODT is currently "up in the air" with KOEHL doing nothing. Source had no information about what the outcome of the matter between the party and SCHRODT would be in the future.

Nazi In Council Race In First District

By Carl A. Schoettler

Wolfgang Schrodt is possibly the only City Council candidate who thinks that what the world needs now is a new Adolf Hitler.

Wolfgang, a Storm Troop group leader for the local National Socialist White People's party, modestly disclaims any personal ambitions to be the American fuehrer.

He does admit a spiritual kinship with Adolf:

"You have to have some of the spiritual qualities Adolf Hitler had to be a member of the Nationalist Socialist White People's party. But Adolf Hitler was one of the greatest white men to come along in thousands of years. I certainly do not compare myself with him."

Very Serious

Wolfgang is not kidding. He's a very serious person. He packs what appears to be a very serious .38-caliber Detective Special on his hip. He's serious when he says he's never shot at anybody. His Eastern avenue bunker is guarded by a very serious looking attack dog.

"What's the dog's name?"

"Just Dog. We don't give his name out," Wolfgang says. "It's not good security."

APING ADOLF — City Council candidate Wolfgang Schrodt, a latter-day storm trooper, preaches Hitleresque hate.

Wolfgang is running in the Republican primary. There are only two Republican candidates for three First district council posts, so he'll automatically be on the ballot in November's general election. He says he's a registered Republican.

National Socialist Republican

"I'm running as a National Socialist Republican," he says. "I can go along with some Republican views."

The National Socialist White People's party doesn't have the resources or personnel available to get enough signatures to get him on the ballot as an independent, Wolfgang says.

"The leaders of the Republican party recently made statements that they wish to have a broad base of views within the party. I'm running within the Republican party to see if they were on the level with that statement."

"Have you heard from the Republicans?"

"Isolating" Him

"No," he says. "They're kind of isolating me. Evidently I'm calling their bluff."

The National Socialist White People's party is the American Nazi party founded by the late George Lincoln Rockwell. Commander Rockwell is late because one of his storm troopers shot him. Wolfgang thinks it might have been a Jewish plot.

Wolfgang thinks most everything is a Jewish plot, except a couple things which are Commie plots or black plots.

Wolfgang is running for the City Council on a platform that is pure—so to speak—racism.

View Of Minorities

"We're opposed to nonwhite minorities," he says. "Jews and blacks, they are the main problem. They're destroying the initiative, morality and white racist filter that made this country great."

He intones the long, boring litany of alleged sins and crimes of nonwhite minorities that racists have handed down for generations. He seems to have a hard time remembering them all. He keeps referring to a printed handbill to refresh his memory. It's so dull even Dog has gone to sleep.

The headquarters is full of stale hate literature so unoriginal it includes "The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion." Wolfgang also stocks Oswald Spengler's "The Decline of the West" and Hitler's "Mein Kampf."

"In the authorized version," Wolfgang assures us. He claims he sells six to eight copies a week. "It goes so fast we can't keep it in stock."

Born In Germany

Nazis apparently have to be supermen to slog their way through the turgid prose of their own propaganda. Wolfgang himself looks a little too thick through the middle to be your model Aryan superman.

But he was born in Germany and had a Hitler era education until the allies brought the thousand-year Reich to an end about 990 years early. Wolfgang was brought to Baltimore in 1950 when he was 12 and has lived here somewhat uneasily since then.

Ethnic nostalgia welled up within Wolfgang when Commander Rockwell formed the National Socialist White People's party. He has been an American Nazi ever since.

He opened this headquarters three years ago as a Nazi bookshop. When he hung out his first swastika it took fairly heavy persuasion to keep his neighbors from tearing the place down. Which seems to indicate Wolfgang's campaign might end up like Rommel's at El Alamein—out of gas.

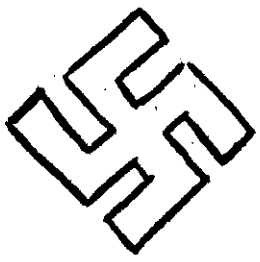
THE WHITE PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE



ARE YOU FED UP WITH...

BUSING ? DO YOU BELIEVE THAT WHITE CHILDREN SHOULD BE FORCED TO GO TO INTEGRATED SCHOOLS WHERE THEY ARE SHAKEN DOWN, MOLESTED AND ASSAULTED BY YOUNG BLACK THUGS?

CRIME ? DO YOU BELIEVE THAT WHITE PEOPLE WHO LIVE IN THE CITY OF BALTIMORE SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO SUBMIT TO VIOLENCE AT THE HANDS OF BLACK CRIMINALS WHO ARE ALLOWED TO STOCKPILE ARMS AND ORGANIZE GUERRILLA WARFARE WHILE WHITE CITIZENS ARE SYSTEMATICALLY DISARMED BY NEW GUN CONTROL LAWS?

TAXES ? DO YOU BELIEVE WE SHOULD BE PAYING HIGHER AND HIGHER TAXES WHILE THE WHITE PEOPLE OF EAST BALTIMORE ARE REGULARLY IGNORED WHEN IT COMES TO IMPROVEMENTS, AND THE MONEY POURED OUT BY POLITICIANS CONSISTENTLY GOES INTO BLACK AREAS FOR NEW SCHOOLS, PLAYGROUNDS, ETC. THAT ARE PERMITTED TO DETERIORATE IN A SHORT TIME?

WELFARE ? DO YOU BELIEVE THAT NEGRO LOAFERS AND THEIR ILLEGITIMATE OFFSPRING ARE ENTITLED TO 90% OF THE WELFARE MONEY POURED OUT BY "BLEEDING HEART" LIBERALS WHILE POOR WHITE PEOPLE ARE REGULARLY NEGLECTED?

UNEMPLOYMENT ? DO YOU BELIEVE THAT WHITE PEOPLE SHOULD BE LAID OFF, OR FIRED, SO THAT BLACKS CAN GET THEIR JOBS UNDER THE MINORITY JOB HIRING LAWS?

POLITICIANS ? DO YOU BELIEVE THAT MEALY-MOUTHED, SELL-OUT POLITICIANS WHO DON'T HAVE THE GUTS TO STAND UP FOR WHITE PEOPLE, SHOULD HOLD OFFICE TO REPRESENT THOSE WHITE PEOPLE?

IF YOU ARE FED UP AND WANT TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT, VOTE FOR...

C. EXTREMIST ACTIVITY AND AFFILIATIONS

As early as 1964, SCHRODT, who claimed membership in the Hitler Youth in Germany during World War II, was passing out nazi literature and soliciting members of the armed forces.

In May, 1972, the NSWPP opened a new field office at 2112 Eastern Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, with group leader SCHRODT in charge.

At the 3rd National Congress of the NSWPP in 1971, SCHRODT received a 5 year service medal and was named to the National Advisory Committee. He was also reported at the 4th and 5th National Congresses in 1972 and 1973.

For the past four years, SCHRODT has participated in both local and out-of-state rallies, picketing, demonstrations and literature distribution, most of these being in Washington, D.C., under the direction of the National Headquarters of the NSWPP, Arlington, Virginia.

During 1971-1973, SCHRODT also led small groups in the distribution of "White Power" literature in the Baltimore area.

In June, 1971, SCHRODT was arrested in Washington, D.C., during an anti-Semitic rally after he jumped from the platform and attacked the hecklers, striking several individuals.

In November, 1971, he was again arrested in Washington, D.C., when he and others tried to disrupt an anti-war demonstration.

Since 1974, over 10 different recorded "White Power" messages which spoke out against Jews, Negroes and communists have been available at Baltimore by dialing 563-4522, which number is listed to the NSWPP with WOLFGANG SCHRODT the responsible party.

SCHRODT is currently a Republican candidate for the City Council from the 1st District, Baltimore, Maryland, in the September primary.

Set out below is an article which appeared in the Baltimore Evening Sun dated July 29, 1975, concerning candidate SCHRODT:

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP), Also Known As, THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, AMERICAN NAZIS, THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

The American Nazi Party - The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell on February 26, 1956, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by Adolf Hitler. On January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to National Socialist White People's Party. The NSWPP supports and follows the line of hatred against blacks, Jews and communists through various propaganda media, demonstrations, and other publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries. Headquartered in Arlington, Virginia, the NSWPP is currently led by Matthias Koehl, Jr.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY

1975 CONGRESS - MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

August 30, 31, and Sept. 1

AUGUST 30:

The first day of the Congress began by everyone attending to meet at Humbolt Park (Oklahoma and Howell Streets) in the morning to register and to receive the instructions for the next activity.

Registration lasted until 12:30 or 1:00 before disembarking on the ST activity of the Congress. Joe Davis, formerly from Chicago, who is presently on the staff at National Headquarters, was in charge of registration. After the registration was taken care of, close order drill and a few "pointers" were give by Lt. Cedric Syrdahl, Chief of Staff of the Stormtroops. Syrdahl and the Chicago Unit were in complete charge of all security during the Congress and served as the Commander's body guard. Second in command of the Security force was TL John Logan. At approximately 1:00 P.M. the ST left Humbolt Park for the War Memorial in Downtown Milwaukee. They first reassembled at Ziegler Park and marched to the memorial where a wreath was layed. The wreath said "LEST WE FORGET - All the Aryan Servicemen who Died in Jewish Wars."

After a brief moment of silence and homage, the Troopers marched through downtown Milwaukee to the lake shore and then proceeded North up Prospect Ave. to the Jewish Community Center where some 40 to 50 Jews were already gathered. Once arriving at the Jewish Community Center, the ST led by Commander Koehl demonstrated in front of the "center" for nearly three quarters of an hour. Some of the ST were carrying signs which had slogans sucah as "SMASH ZIONIST GANGSTERS!" and "NO MORE JEW WARS!" Others read "DUMP ISRAEL!" The ST also yelled chants which were very effective in angering the Jew audience. The chants were: "What do we want!" "WHITE POWER!" and "What do we want?!" "DUMP ISRAEL!" All though no incidents occurred and no arrests, there was quite abit of tension and the police were prepared for anything and of course the ST were also.

After the demonstration the ST were driven back to Humbolt Park where the registered delegates were the only ones to be give the location of the Congress Site which was at 2525 Kinickinick Ave in Milwaukee only a few blocks from Humbolt Park. The first session of the Congress began about 5:30 P.M. and all persons, with the exception of the Security on Duty were in casual clothes.

At the Congress, about 6:00 P.M. dinner was served and shortly afterwards the Congress was officially opened by Robert Homan who is the Public Relations Officer. Mr. Homan is now residing in Seattle, Washington. After his short opening address, Anthony ~~XXXX~~ Schmidt gave his welcoming address to the delegates which he said no more than he was very happy and somewhat surprised that the Congress would be held in Milwaukee after only one year of Party activism. He stated that this would not have been possible if it weren't for the capable leadership of Commander Koehl and the assistance of the Chicago Unit.

The next speakers to speak were organizational leaders. Lt. Syrdahl, ST Chief of Staff, Palmer: NSYM organizer, Mrs. Loretta Syrdahl: NSWO National organizer and Commander Koehl on the [redacted] FOIA(b)(7) - (D) A more detailed report on each of these addresses will be forthcoming. In brief, each organizational leader of the various branches of the Party gave a brief outline of the functions of their group.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

Next to speak was the Commander on the European tour last July which Lt. Syrdahl accompanied. The report lasted about an hour and he told of all the experiences and people he met who had known Adolf Hitler personally for many years. Such persons were Hans Bauer and his wife. Bauer was Hitler's personal pilot for thirteen or fourteen years. He was the first pilot ever to fly over the Alps and had flown such personages as Pope Pius and Mussolini many times. He was also one of the last persons who saw Hitler alive. Commander Koehl also met with Kempke and his wife. Kempke was Hitler's cheauffeur for many years. He retold stories that Kempke had told him of some of the adventures and experiences he had with Adolf Hitler. He also met Hans Ulrich Rudel, the famous stuka pilot who destroyed over eight hundred Russian tanks and one Russian battleship. He was the most decorated soldier of the twntieth century. As a matter of fact, he received every medal there was so a special medal had to be made. Rudel now lives in Argentina.

Approximately ninety-five persons attended the Saturday session of the Congress.

REPORT ON THE ACTIVITIES OF THE

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY

1975 CONGRESS - MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN

August 30, 31, and Sept. 1

Best available image

AUGUST 31:

The second day of the Congress was held exclusively in the Congress Hall located at 2525 Kinickinick Ave. The activities for the day began at about 10:00 A.M.

First on the agenda were the activity reports of the various units across the country. These reports were given by local representatives of their respective units. Since note taking and tape recording by unauthorized individuals was against Congress regulations, it was not possible to remember all the individual's names. However, some of those who spoke were Joe Davis representing the Arlington, Virginia Unit, Bob Lyons representing the Maryland unit, Kerr (?) and White representing the various California units, and others representing Oklahoma, Texas, Kentucky, Minnesota, and Tracy, California. Tony Schmidt reported on the Milwaukee activities and Lt. Syrdahl gave more of a dissatisfactory account of ALL the activity reports. Syrdahl who spoke last, did not give his intended activity report. He instead talked more about the other units reports, in general. The main theme of his talk was that all the representatives talked about how satisfied they were with their activities. Lt. Syrdahl said that what they had done is not enough to be satisfied with. There was a tone of disappointment in his voice and perhaps some anger. He told them never to be satisfied with their activities, and to always "pick them apart" so that the same mistakes will not occur again.

After the activity reports, lunch was served and then the congress resumed at approximately 2:30 P.M. The next session consisted of "rehash" information that has been heard over time and again.

First to speak was Lt. Syrdahl on Race and Culture. His dissertation was slightly different from those heard in the past. This is because Syrdahl gave it. His approach was comparing the lower species of animal life such as the Hyena who throughout their lives the main goal is taking care of itself. Then, he said, there are other animals who perhaps take care of and protect their mate and in some cases even their offspring. He then stated that only rarely does the Black ever surpass this last category of caring for their family and offspring. The White man has reached that stage thousands of years ago

Next to speak was Commander Koehl on the State of the Party. In this address he spoke of the new additions to the National Headquarters. The Party now owns the entire building at 2507 N. Franklin Road in Arlington, Virginia. It was also disclosed that the Chicago Unit now has a headquarters which the location has not been disclosed yet. He spoke of the NSWO (National Socialist Women's Organization) and of the active branch of the NSYM (National Socialist Youth Movement).

The Commander also spoke of the importance of racial solidarity and the importance of married men and women to do their active part in the organizattion. He said that if it weren't for persons like Himmler, Streicher, Goebbels and Hess, who were all family men, the Party wbuld have been in a sad state of affairs.

He spoke on the basic Party goals and added that if there was any one person attending the Congress that was there just because they hated Blacks or Jews that they did not belong. He said the one common thing among everyone present should be the love for the White race.

He said that there is nothing that could stop the coming victory of the Party because of our racial ties, Rockwell and Hitler.

After his speech ceremonies were held. These ceremonies were for promotions and citations for wounds received and oustanding conduct. Those promoted were Cedric Syrdahl to Captain, John Logan and Bob Lyons to Group Leader, Bob Joyce to Team Leader. Citations and wound medals were awarded to Frederick Prohaska, Joe Davis and several pthor persons.

After the ceremonies, Commander Koehl gave his closing address which he ugged more Party activism and promised to achieve more each year.

As of the spring of 1975, the NSWPP in Baltimore consisted of the following people:

NAME	DESCRIPTIVE DATA
WOLFGANG SCHRODT	Group leader in the storm troopers and operator of the NSWPP bookstore, 2112 Eastern Avenue. Girl friend DENE "Brookie" MC GEE, 21 years old, part American Indian who lives at the headquarters. She is employed at Burke's Restaurant, Lombard and Light Sts. SCHRODT and MC GEE are supposed to get married in December, 1975. SCHRODT lives off of what MC GEE makes and what he takes in at the bookstore. Additionally, those who live at headquarters pay $15 a week plus $5 for Party expenses.
BOB LYONS	Unit leader in the Party, group leader in the storm troopers - lives in Arbutus. The Party had a problem because of the Indian woman living at headquarters and to get off the hook, the Commander made LYONS the Unit leader; however by an agreement between SCHRODT and LYONS, SCHRODT actually runs the whole show.
RUSTOM GHANDHI	Acting team leader - joined in 1973 and lived at headquarters from September, 1974, to April, 1975. He was expelled by SCHRODT in April, 1975, because he got married and decided to move out.

FOIA(b)(7) - (D)

NAME	DESCRIPTIVE DATA
JOHN BOWLES	Member of the Youth Movement who was supposed to go into the probationary storm troopers group. BOWLES is residing at headquarters. He was involved in a slander campaign using printed leaflets against a local political candidate named LAUENSTEIN. BOWLES likes to go off on his own and can be described as a self-styled activist.
Kenneth ~~HENRY~~ BADDERS	Member of the Youth Movement. His father is a chiropodist and approves of his sons activity.
ELLEN MARTZ	An official supporter - reportedly an ex-nun. She maintains close contact with SCHRODT and assists with funds and services. In the spring of 1975, she used her car to transport GHANDHI, BADDERS and BOWLES to Washington, D.C., for a demonstration by the Party.
RON (last name unknown)	Official supporter who has furnished money and services to the Party - single, in his 30's - wears big mustache - drives late model Cadillac - employed GMAD and resides in an apartment in Baltimore City. RON accompanied Baltimore members to Washington, D.C., before the RUFOLF HESS vigil around Christmas of 1974.
ANDY SMITH	An official supporter and probationary storm trooper who had been with the Party in California prior to coming to Baltimore. SMITH claimed to have dropped out of the University of Illinois. He worked for the Wakenhut Corporation while in Baltimore and drove a Cadillac. SMITH was described as a nut by the Party in California and claimed his parents had wanted to put him away. He thought everyone was out to get him and he had several weapons - one a police special. SMITH left Baltimore and his whereabouts are unknown.

Party members are required to pay 10% of what they make to the Party monthly. Normally, to be an officer in the storm troopers, you have to be a Party member.

SCHRODT regularly signs up people as official supporters. These people will receive a one year subscription to "White Power", the Party newspaper and the NS bulletin. The initial payment to SCHRODT would be $3 with a pledge to give a certain amount each month thereafter, which amount would be sent to National Headquarters, Arlington, Virginia.

SCHRODT holds meetings for NSWPP storm troopers and members on Saturday afternoons in the room in back of the bookstore. There is very little of any Party business conducted and the meetings are mostly social. The only activity other than participation in demonstrations has been weekly distribution of Party literature early Sunday mornings mostly by SCHRODT, LYONS and BOWLES.

The "White Power" messages are taped by SCHRODT himself with the material being taken usually from the Party newspaper. SCHRODT has been given the privilege of making his own messages. Others in the Party have to get approval before they can put out any messages.

SCHRODT wears a loaded .22 caliber pistol when he is on duty at headquarters. He also has a .30-06 Mauser bolt action loaded with armor piercing bullets and a .22 caliber bolt action rifle.

RE: WOLFGANG HANS HEINRICH SCHRODT

In January, 1974, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that WOLFGANG SCHRODT, a group leader in the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP), resided at Party headquarters, 2112 Eastern Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST WHITE PEOPLE'S PARTY (NSWPP), ALSO KNOWN AS, THE AMERICAN NAZI PARTY, AMERICAN NAZIS, THE WORLD UNION OF FREE ENTERPRISE NATIONAL SOCIALISTS, THE GEORGE LINCOLN ROCKWELL PARTY

The American Nazi Party - The World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell on February 26, 1956, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement, as espoused by the German Nazi Party, which was headed by Adolf Hitler. On January 1, 1967, the official name of this organization was changed to National Socialist White People's Party. The NSWPP supports and follows the line of hatred against blacks, Jews and communists through various propaganda media, demonstrations, and other publicity-seeking devices for the purpose of seeking a legitimate dominant political party within the United States and in foreign countries. Headquartered in Arlington, Virginia, the NSWPP is currently led by Matthias Koehl, Jr.

It was learned that the only ones now living at NSWPP headquarters, Baltimore, are SCHRODT, BOWLES and "BROOKIE". Another member who had been at the headquarters was brought up on charges of petty theft about a month ago. SCHRODT filed a complaint with the police department and the subject got 1 year probation.
